Benefits of membership

The Nursery and Garden Industry Queensland (NGIQ) provides products and services specifically geared to assist growers of plants to make their businesses more successful. We help you by:

Creating opportunities for you to meet and sell product to new and existing clients.

NGIQ runs regular networking events throughout the year. These offer an opportunity to mix with other business owners, share ideas and promote your products in a friendly informal atmosphere. NGIQ Members also have access to exhibit in:

Green Expos

The premier Nursery & Garden Industry Trade event in Queensland attracts industry visitors from all over Australia.

Trade Day

Horticultural traders with exceptional quality and service, all in the one place. Held monthly in Brisbane (over 700 registered buyers) and twice a year in Toowoomba.

Providing you and your staff with valuable training opportunities.

As part of our commitment to keeping members informed of relevant business issues, new legislation and technical issues, NGIQ offers a range of workshops and seminars to ensure your skills are kept up to date.

Reducing your costs of doing business.

NGIQ offers a choice of high-quality services designed to help you run your business efficiently, at heavily subsidised prices or free of charge. Saving you time and money—we are here to provide personal advice and assistance on technical or business issues, as well as industry accreditation. Experienced and qualified NGIQ staff, including field officers who are available on site, are ready to answer all of your questions, no matter how big or small.

Keeping you up-to-date with what's happening in the industry.

NGIQ keeps you regularly updated with the latest information in a number of ways:

- NGIQ monthly "Leaflet" magazine & NGIA publications
- Branch meetings held throughout Queensland in Brisbane and regional areas
- Industrial Relations updates
- Website updated regularly

Giving you a voice within the highest levels of government.

NGIQ works hard to ensure the business view is represented in the public and political arena. As the voice of business, NGIQ has done much to influence government policy and to keep public debate focused on key business issues.

NGIQ are also members of the Queensland Farmers Federation who unites 16 peak rural industry organisations providing powerful representation for more than 13,000 primary producers.

NGIQ does collectively for business and industry what individual firms could not achieve alone—by getting involved you can influence outcomes of decisions that affect your business.

Join an organisation whose primary objective is to assist your business to be as successful as possible!
